Yellow warning
Ice

Between 20:00 Thu 24 Feb 2022 and
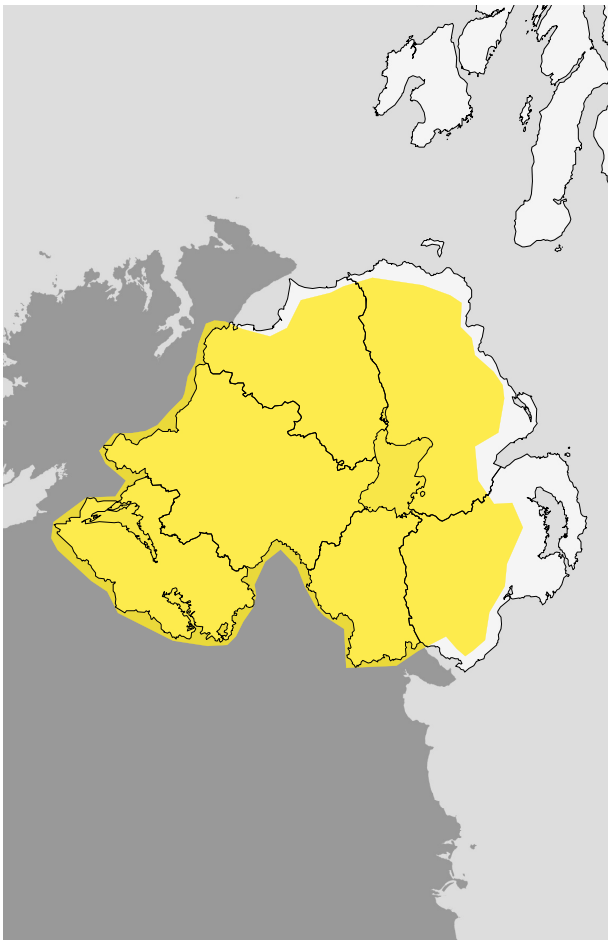
09:00 Fri 25 Feb 2022



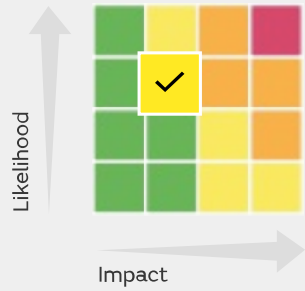
Icy stretches possible on untreated surfaces overnight.

What to expect

- Some icy patches could occur on untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths, perhaps leading to injuries or accidents

Further details

Overnight showers will mostly turn to rain, but still with some sleet or snow showers on higher ground, mainly limited to the highest routes by late evening. However clear spells between showers will allow temperatures to drop towards freezing in places, with some icy stretches possible on untreated surfaces. Showers will die out towards the end of the night with more cloud spilling into the west allowing temperatures to recover a little.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
